

WORLD OF WARCRAFT “War of the Elements”

Sales Highlights

Releases March 29, 2011

➤ Cataclysm storyline

War of the Elements picks up the Cataclysm storyline where Worldbreaker left off. This time the focus is on the Elemental war that has been brought about by the return of Deathwing.

➤ New Allies and Master Heroes

Players can align themselves with one of the Elemental Lords that will be playable allies for the first time. There will be one for each of the primary elements, Fire, Earth, Air and Water.

➤ Theme

Blue and Bronze Dragonflights and their minions will be a theme in the set with the Blue Dragonflight getting a Master Hero card for Kalecgos and the Bronze getting one for Nozdormu.

➤ New mechanics

The Stash mechanic (where players can gain an effect for using a non-quest card as a resource) will make a follow up appearance. More cards with Stash will continue to build on a new dynamic in deck building. Goblins and Worgen will be plentiful along with their respective abilities: Time is Money and Aberration.

➤ Loot

The Loot isn't all locked down yet, but we do know that the common level loot will again be a version of a companion pet that has been available in game before. For War of the Elements it will be Lil' KT, a mini version of Kel'Thuzad. The rare Loot will be a ground mount and that's all we know for sure at this point.

➤ Epic Collection

War of the Elements Epic Collection is due out in late April and will follow the configuration of the Icecrown and Worldbreaker Epic Collections. Set includes:

6 booster packs, deckbox, playmat, 5 random foil heroes from the set, a guaranteed Lil' KT Loot card and a set of WoW TCG card dividers all in a 14" card storage box.
